INTRODUCTION

This publication contains detailed statistics on crime reported to or detected by Victoria Police for the fiscal year ended 30 June 2011 together with comparisons with the 2009/10 fiscal year.

The statistics have been compiled from information stored on the Victoria Police Law Enforcement Assistance Program (LEAP) database which was implemented on 1 March 1993.

The document contains detailed information on crime, victims, alleged offenders, family incidents, missing persons, vehicle theft, stolen property and other related information together with the socio-demographic information on offenders and victims. In addition, it includes colour maps summarising offence frequencies by police geographical locations within Victoria.

Detailed crime counting, classification rules and definitions are included in the section entitled "DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATORY NOTES" to provide assistance in the interpretation of statistics.

Information contained in this publication relates only to those crimes reported to or becoming known to police in Victoria. For additional information on crime victimisation, readers should refer to Victimisation Surveys conducted in Victoria on selected offences by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) during 2009/10, and by the Victorian Department of Justice in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

For comparisons on recorded Victims of crimes between the various Australian States and Territories, readers should refer to the ABS publication, Recorded Crime - Victims Australia.

As the information presented in this document is by no means exhaustive, any requests for additional information should be directed to the Chief Statistician, Corporate Statistics.

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATORY NOTES

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATORY NOTES

On 1 March 1993 Victoria Police implemented the Law Enforcement Assistance Program (LEAP) state-wide. The LEAP data base is fully relational and stores particulars of all crimes brought to the notice of police as well as family incidents and missing persons. It also includes details on locations, vehicles and persons involved. The database is on-line and updated constantly, 24 hours a day.

A copy of the LEAP database is downloaded each night for use by various areas of the Victoria Police to produce crime statistics and conduct data analysis.

All data relating to crime, family incidents and missing persons presented in this publication for the 2010/11 fiscal year has been obtained from the downloaded version of the LEAP database on 18 July 2011.

CRIME COUNTING AND CLASSIFICATION

Offences Recorded:

Consist of those offences recorded on LEAP between 1 July 2010 and 30 June 2011 regardless of when the offence occurred or when it was reported to police (over 85% of all offences are recorded on LEAP within 48 hours of being reported to police).

Caution should be exercised when interpreting recorded crime statistics. Only those offences which become known to police and for which a crime report has been completed are included in this publication.

Counting Rules:

Victoria Police uses three methods of counting crime depending on the particular offence. For all crime against the person, and most crime against property, the counting unit is the number of principal victims for each separate occurrence of the offence (e.g. two persons are assaulted by three offenders - two offences of assault are recorded). For offences against statute such as possess and use drugs, the number of alleged offenders is the counting unit (e.g. three offenders are found in possession of cannabis - three offences of possess cannabis are counted). For a small number of infrequent offences, such as piracy, the event itself becomes the counting unit, that is, one offence is counted for each incident of piracy.

Only the most serious offence which best describes a distinct course of criminal conduct is recorded in official crime statistics, even though an offender may be charged with other offences resulting from the one incident (e.g. an offender carrying a firearm commits an armed robbery – only the offence of armed robbery is recorded although the offender would be charged with armed robbery and possession of a firearm).

The number of distinct courses of criminal conduct occurring within an incident will generally be one unless there is a break in time and/or location. For example, if an offender presents three valueless cheques to a teller only one offence would be recorded but if the three cheques were presented at different times or at different branches then three offences would be recorded.

Offences Cleared:

Refers to all offences recorded on LEAP which have resulted in: one or more alleged offenders being processed for the offence, or an investigation reveals no offence occurred, or the complaint was withdrawn or the perpetrator was known but for legal and other reasons could not be charged (e.g. under age or deceased).

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATORY NOTES

Single Year Clearances:

The number of offences recorded between 1 July 2010 and 30 June 2011 which were cleared within the same period. They are also represented as a proportion of the total offences recorded. Offences cleared within this period which had been reported in earlier reporting periods are shown separately and not included in the single year clearances.

Charges:

Refers to the total number of charges laid against offenders. These include secondary offences which are not included in the recorded figures for offences.

For example, two offenders each carrying a firearm, assault a customer during the course of an armed robbery. These results in charges of possess firearm, armed robbery, robbery, theft, and assault being laid against each offender. The number of offences counted in the recorded figures for offences however, would be one offence of armed robbery. The number of charges therefore, will be considerably higher than the number of reported offences and the number of offenders.

Table 1.3 includes a column showing the number of charges laid.

Note that for a variety of reasons, offenders may not be subsequently presented before a court on all charges laid at the time of their apprehension.

Offence Categories:

There are in excess of 4000 individual statutory and common law offences recorded on LEAP which have been grouped into 27 broad offence categories. These categories are further subdivided into four general classes of "Crime Against the Person", "Crime Against Property", "Drug Offences" and "Other Crime". Offences dealt with by way of penalty notice and/or traffic offences are not recorded on LEAP and are not included in the official crime statistics.

Homicide Statistics

The offence category of Homicide is not restricted to the offence of murder but includes offences such as manslaughter and culpable driving which also result in the death of a person. The offence category of Homicide also includes attempts and other degrees of the offence. For a detailed breakdown of Homicide statistics, including murder, See Table 9.17.

Offence Degree:

Offences are classified as either substantive offences, attempts, accessories and/or abets, conspiracies and incitement. Unless otherwise stated, the statistics presented in this publication include all degrees of the offence (Table 2.2 includes a breakdown of offences by degree).

Alleged Offenders:

Refers to persons who have allegedly committed a criminal offence and have been processed for that offence by either arrest, summons, caution, penalty notice, official warning or warrant of apprehension between 1 July 2010 and 30 June 2011 regardless of when the offence occurred. Those persons who for legal or other reasons were apprehended but were not charged are also included. Persons are counted on each occasion they are processed and for each offence counted in recorded offences (e.g. a person processed on three occasions will be counted three times). Only the offence in recorded offences for which the offender has been processed is included.

Distinct Alleged Offenders:

Refers to the number of distinct individual offenders processed for the commission of an offence by either, arrest, summons, caution, penalty notice, official warning or warrant of apprehension between 1 July 2010 and 30 June 2011 regardless of when the offence occurred. Those individuals who for legal or other reasons were apprehended but were not charged are also included. Individual offenders are only counted for the first offence for which they are processed in the fiscal year. Demographic profiles are based on age, sex and other personal details as recorded on the first occurrence on which they were processed during the fiscal year. A person's age is based on their age as at the date they committed their first offence.

Victims:

Victims of crime are classified as either persons, businesses, statute or other depending on the nature of the offence. Victim profiles presented in this publication are based on those victims recorded as persons only. Victims who are victimised on more than one occasion are counted for each occasion.

Crime Rates:

The population figure used in calculating statewide and district crime rates is the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) estimate for the month of December 2010 (ABS Catalogue No. 3101.0).

FACTORS IMPACTING REPORTED AND CLEARED CRIME

Following a review of crime counting and classification of offences to coincide with the implementation of LEAP, a number of changes have occurred in the way crime is classified and counted which will affect the validity of comparisons with pre 1993/94 official crime statistics. The specific changes are:-

Reported Rape and Sex Offences
In 1993/94 the Victoria Police adopted the rule of counting the number of rape and sex offences reported per victim for each and every distinct course of criminal conduct (e.g. a person raped on ten occasions over a six month period is counted as ten offences). Prior to 1993/94 only the number of victims was counted regardless of the number of distinct occurrences (e.g. only one offence would be counted).

Reported Possess and Use Drug Offences
To comply with the counting rule that only the most serious offence which best describes a course of criminal conduct be counted, in situations where offenders are found in possession of drugs and admit their use, only the offence of possess drugs is generally counted whereas prior to 1993/94 both the offences of possess and use were counted.

Reported Assault (Police) and Resist Arrest
Prior to 1993/94 the offences of assault police and resist arrest were each counted in instances where both offences were committed. To comply with the most serious offence which best fits the distinct course of criminal conduct rule, only the offence of assault (police) is now counted.

Clearance Rate
Prior to 1993/94 clearance rates include crimes cleared from previous reporting periods.

Updated Statistics
Due to the addition of supplementary information to existing records, and changes resulting from quality control checks, crime statistics obtained from LEAP may alter slightly over time. Clearance numbers are particularly prone to change following the processing of offenders, often months or even years after a crime is recorded. For the same reason, 1996/97 to 1999/00 figures in this publication may vary slightly from those published in previous Victoria Police Crime Statistics publications.

Offences by Postcode
Because of changes made to the LEAP postcode table, crime figures for the area of Wendouree (3355) published in the Victoria Police Crime Statistics 1994/95 publication, for 1993/94 and 1994/95, are recorded under the postcode of Ballarat (3350). Similarly, crime for Golden Square (3555) and Eaglehawk (3556) were recorded under the postcode for Bendigo (3550).

Licensing Offences
In March 1996 the Victorian Government enacted legislation enabling offences under the Liquor Control (Further Amendment) Act to be dealt with by the way of Penalty Notices. As LEAP reports are not submitted where a penalty notice is issued, there will be a progressive decline in the number of licensing offences recorded in official crime statistics obtained from LEAP.

Change in the Definition of Aggravated Burglary
A change in the definition of aggravated burglary came into effect on 1 September 1997. Prior to this, aggravated burglary was defined as a person committing a burglary who at the time had in their possession any weapons or explosives (including imitations). The new definition is a broadening of the previous one with the addition relating to whether a person was present in the building at the time of the burglary. It also requires that the person committing the burglary must have known that a person was present or was reckless as to whether or not a person was present. This means that some burglaries are now being recorded as aggravated burglaries. This change has increased the number of recorded aggravated burglaries and as such caution should be exercised when making comparisons with previous years.

COMPARISONS WITH PREVIOUS YEARS

As indicated earlier, care should be exercised in comparing post 1993/94 crime statistics with previous years.

Figures used for 2009/10 in this publication for year to year comparisons are those extracted from LEAP on 18 July 2011 and may differ slightly to those previously published in the Victoria Police Crime Statistics 2009/10 publication, which were extracted from LEAP on 18 July 2010. This is due to the LEAP database being updated with supplementary information.

Offender Statistics

Offender statistics published in the Victoria Police Crime Statistics 1993/94 publication were calculated according to the date the alleged offenders were processed. Due to the time lag between when an alleged offender is processed and when they are recorded on LEAP, offender statistics were liable to change significantly over time. To minimise this effect, offender statistics from 1994/95 onwards were calculated according to the system generated date (charge date) created when a charge record is added to the LEAP database. Due to multiple charges being laid against offenders on more than one occasion, for offences arising from the one incident, offender statistics have been calculated based on the first charge date for each incident.

Please note that figures shown in Appendix A of the 1995/96 publication should be used for comparison purposes and not those published in the 1993/94 and 1994/95 Victoria Police Crime Statistics publication.

Property Damage Offences

Between July 1993 and June 1996 an offence category of Criminal Damage was included under the heading of "Crime Against Property" and comprised the indictable offences of Criminal Damage in the Crimes Act only. During this period the summary offences of Wilful Damage were classified under the heading of "Other Crime". From July 1997 the indictable offence of Criminal Damage and the summary offence of Wilful Damage have been combined to form the offence category of Property Damage under the heading of "Crime Against Property". Care should be exercised when referring figures under the headings of "Crime Against Property" and "Other Crime" in the Victoria Police Crime Statistics publications for the years of 1993/94, 1994/95 and 1995/96.

Other Crime

Between July 1993 and June 1996 the heading of "Other Crime" included the offence categories of Drug (Cultivate, Manufacture and Traffick), Drug (Possess and Use), Other Indictable and Other Summary offences. From July 1997 the two drug offence categories were removed from this heading and grouped to form a new heading of "Drug Offences". Furthermore seven new offence categories were created under the heading of "Other Crime". The new categories are: Going Equipped to Steal, Justice Procedures, Regulated Public Order, Weapons/Explosives, Harassment, Behaviour in Public Order and Other. These were previously classed as Other Indictable and Other Summary offences. Care should be exercised when referring to figures under the heading of "Other Crime" in the Victoria Police Crime Statistics publications from 1993/94 to 1996/97.

Please note that "Racial Appearance" is based on the subjective assessment of attending police and is recorded primarily for operational purposes only. Extreme care should be exercised in the interpretation of statistics on ethnicity as "Racial Appearance" is one limited indicator of ethnicity based on appearance only and does not necessarily mean that the persons attributed to a particular ethnic group are in fact of that origin. Similarly, statistics published elsewhere in this publication on Country of Birth provide another, but limited, indicator of a person's ethnic background.

ALLEGED OFFENDERS PROCESSED BY OFFENCE CATEGORY & RACIAL APPEARANCE, 2010/11

Table 4.4

Please note that "Racial Appearance" is based on the subjective assessment of attending police and is recorded primarily for operational purposes only. Extreme care should be exercised in the interpretation of statistics on ethnicity as "Racial Appearance" is one limited indicator of ethnicity based on appearance only and does not necessarily mean that the persons attributed to a particular ethnic group are in fact of that origin. Similarly, statistics published elsewhere in this publication on Country of Birth provide another, but limited, indicator of a person's ethnic background.

Please note that "Racial Appearance" is based on the subjective assessment of attending police and is recorded primarily for operational purposes only. Extreme care should be exercised in the interpretation of statistics on ethnicity as "Racial Appearance" is one limited indicator of ethnicity based on appearance only and does not necessarily mean that the persons attributed to a particular ethnic group are in fact of that origin. Similarly, statistics published elsewhere in this publication on Country of Birth provide another, but limited, indicator of a person's ethnic background.

Please note that the 24 countries shown were the countries with the highest number of distinct offenders in 2010/11. These are not the same countries shown in previous publications. While this is not consistent with previous publications, it provides a more accurate representation of the distribution of offenders' country of birth.

Please note that "Racial Appearance" is based on the subjective assessment of attending police and is recorded primarily for operational purposes only. Extreme care should be exercised in the interpretation of statistics on ethnicity as "Racial Appearance" is one limited indicator of ethnicity based on appearance only and does not necessarily mean that the persons attributed to a particular ethnic group are in fact of that origin. Similarly, statistics published elsewhere in this publication on Country of Birth provide another, but limited, indicator of a person's ethnic background.
